BUNINYONG-Mt HELEN LIONS CLUB Inc.

P.O.Box 254, Buninyong, 3357.

Our Lions Club has a reputation of always being busy and the past month or so is certainly no exception.

The University of Ballarat invited us to participate in their "Volunteers' Day" where many of the volunteer groups from around the District were able to set up displays and promote their activities to students at the University. We joined members from the Sebastopol Lions Club and were very happy with the reaction of those who enquired about Lions in general and our Clubs in particular.

As a result we obtained some firm enquiries about joining our organisation and these will be followed up by our Zone Chairperson Dawn Fischer.

From the left, Lion Wayne Woodhouse from Sebastopol, Lion Bill Jolly from Buninyong Mt Helen and PDG David Ashmore from Sebastopol manning our stand at the University.

On Sunday the 14th of August, we had a very pleasant breakfast at the Krooze In Cafe organised by Lion Cathy Maguire.

Our next venture was back down to Rokewood to help with the removal of more fencing burnt during the bushfires. These days are as much fun for us Lions as they are work, and we appreciate the thanks we get for our efforts.

Our Dinner Meeting was a very busy night. Guests included three members of the Lions club of Geelong- Corio Bay, Leicester and Ondria Cheeseman, Ross Gillard, Aileen Santee, Brenda Hand, and the Manager of our Bendigo Community Bank, Stuart McKee.

On behalf of the Bendigo Community Bank, the Manager Stuart McKee presented the Lions club with a cheque for $1000 to help us with the costs of our Carols night. President Andy accepted the cheque and thanked the Bank for its ongoing support for this event.

President Andy Paterson accepting the donation from Stuart McKee the Manager of the Bendigo Community Bank.

Our invited speaker for this night was Raechel Gleeson from the Red Cross Society who gave us a very interesting talk on the history and activities of the Red Cross. President Andy thanked Raechel for coming all the way from Geelong and passed on the appreciation of all the members and guests for her informative talk.

THE BUNINYONG Mt CLEAR COMMUNITY CAROLS event will be held in De Soza Park, on Saturday the 14th of December, starting with a BBQ at 6pm. There will be plenty of activities for children with the main part of the evening starting at 7.30pm. The culmination will be the arrival of Father Christmas at around 9.45pm.

This event is for all ages and denominations so please put this date into your diaries and see if we can beat our attendance of last year.

S.S.SCOTSBURN

Thank you to the Buninyong Lions Club and the Men's Shed for completing our boat for the Scotsburn playground. S.S. Scotsburn has been a popular place to play and have fun with classmates. The men have erected a mast and a steering wheel too. Thank you all from the Scotsburn campus community.

SOUTH ST. DEBATING COMPETITION

Congratulations to Kai Duncan, Rhys Davis and Eliza Lepair who won the grade 5/6 section of the South St. Debating competition. They spoke very clearly and did their rebuttals to an excellent standard. The topic they debated was that the wolf is always unfairly cast as the bad guy when he only wanted a pork dinner. Our team was on the affirmative side.

CHESS AT SCOTSBURN

Liz and Alan Lucas are teaching the basics of chess to interested students at lunchtimes. The students are enjoying this experience very much.

A GREAT PLACE TO LEARN AND GROW

The Yendon History Group is researching World War 1 servicemen who spent part of their lives in Yendon. We began with the Yendon School Roll of Honour book which is kept by Buninyong RSL, and widened our search through the National Archives, the Australian War Memorial, ancestry.com and other sources, but we still have many gaps.

If any readers have family links with pre-WW1 Yendon, we would love to hear from them. We are planning to restore our Avenue of Honour and dedicate a tree for each of the 16 killed in action, and are especially keen to make contact with the families of these soldiers:

STURT BUNINYONG MASONIC LODGE

Freemasons Assist at Royal South Street

Over the last four years Sturt Buninyong Lodge members along with other freemasons from district lodges have been present during the RSS Festival of Bands competition in the first week of September.

The festival of young individual musicians, school bands and orchestras is sponsored by the United Grand Lodge of Victoria with awards being presented on the final night by the Grand Master.

During the 2013 festival Freemasons have provided security at the rear door to the theatre and other members available in the foyer to explain the charity work undertaken by Freemasonry in Ballarat district and across Victoria.

Members assisting from Sturt Buninyong were Ken Jenkin, Brian Coffey, Alby Peart, David Pratt, Justin McGeachin, Brett Johnson, Doug Williams and the Freemasons Task Force District Co-ordinator Ron Fleming.

Justin Becomes a Master Mason

The August meeting of Sturt Buninyong Lodge provided the setting for Brother Justin McGeachin to become a Master Mason. Since joining in November 2011 Justin has participated in a number of steps and training in preparation for his role in the Lodge as a Master Mason.

Although Saturday 17th August was one of the coldest days and evenings during this winter, 32 members appreciated the work of the Lodge and enjoyed the hospitality during the traditional supper.

BUNINET

It is with regret that we have deemed it necessary to close Buninet.

Buninet was formed to provide public access to the internet for people that did not have their own computers and was opened by John Brumby in 2000.

During 2000 Buninyong Uniting Church congregation received a Skills.net grant to establish a community accessible computer facility and provide basic training in computers and use of the internet. The Church Council considered this to be an important means to provide a community service for the residents of Buninyong.

The original Committee consisted of John and Lois Urquhart, Betty Bunting, Larry Thorpe, Greg King and Adrian Claridge.

Alan Mills, Jim Gay and Alan Bennett provided the carpentry skills to alter a room in the Sunday School hall for the computers to be housed in.

We were part of Ballarat Televillage which was an initiative of the City of Ballarat. The agreement with Skills.net required us to train a certain number of people over two years and that the facility opened at times during the week both for lessons and also general access. This requirement was carried out successfully.

During this year attendance has fallen away and it has been uneconomic to continue. On Tuesday 3rd September we held a supper and invited those people who have been part of Buninet over the years to attend. We had a pleasant time sharing stories and memories of the times when Buninet was a “real goer”.

BUNINYONG EMPOWERMENT MEETING REPORT

Thursday 29th August, 2013 at the Buninyong Town Hall

A big thank you to everyone for participating in the Buninyong Township Empowerment meeting last week. It was great to launch the program and get the discussions off and running. Let's hope it's the start of a really strong new working relationship between the City of Ballarat and the Buninyong community.

I hope the project updates we showcased provided you with good insight about initiatives that are currently being planned or delivered in the village. Of course this is the start of a new conversation and we look forward to the progression of new ideas and projects from this process into the future. Thanks also to Bill, Barry and Stephen for their contributions on the night.

The Customer Service desk was a popular attraction at the meeting and we are currently working on responses to all listed community issues.

Graeme Kent has begun to collate the information from the community conversation sessions and has locked in a time for the working group to get together. We ended up with about a dozen people expressing an interest in the working group and we look forward to catching up with them in the next few weeks.

We're still on track to circulate a summary report from the meeting last week to this group by the end of the month as agreed.

BUNINYONG MEN'S SHED Inc
P.O.Box 414
Buninyong Vic 3357

The Buninyong Men's Shed was formed by a small group of like-minded men about four years ago, and has met in a private shed since then.

About twelve months ago it was decided that we should look for dedicated premises to use and we scoured the town but to no avail. A chance meeting with Councillor Peter Innes led us down the path of working with the City of Ballarat in our search.

The City of Ballarat Community Development Officer, Peter Appleton came with us whilst we searched for suitable premises and through him we were offered the block next to the Lions Shed in Forrest Street where the Tennis clubrooms used to be.

As luck had it, the State Government, through the Department of Human Resources had funds available in the way of grants to assist in the building of a new Men's Shed and the City of Ballarat agreed to act as our Auspice Body in the preparation of our application which was, after several amendments to amendments, submitted. Our sincere thanks must go to Peter Appleton and his staff for the invaluable assistance they gave to us in preparing this submission, and agreeing to act as the managing body if we are successful.

The City of Ballarat has also agreed to provide funding from monies allocated to the Buninyong Community to help us make up any shortfall in building costs. For this, we must thank our Councillor, Peter Innes.

When completed, the Men's Shed will establish a key community facility in the Buninyong and District Precinct. It will be fully accessible to all men who wish to participate in the traditional Men's Shed activities, or are just looking for companionship and a quiet place to relax. The promotion of men's health will be part of our obligation with the co-operation of our local medical facilities, and other health bodies in Ballarat. The new shed will be fully accessible and will include a designated work area with adjoining recreational and kitchen facilities.

The ability to fund this facility on an ongoing basis has been budgeted and the current Shed members are taking on small jobs to generate income. One just recently finished is the building of a "boat" in the grounds of the Scotsburn Primary School.

The "SS Scotsburn" is now a focal point in the schoolyard and extremely popular with the students.

The Men's Shed is looking for somewhere to store equipment pending (hopefully) the building of our own Shed early next year. People are wanting to donate workshop equipment, benches, furniture etc but we have nowhere to store the items. If anyone has some space they are not using in or around the Buninyong area we would really appreciate it.

If you would like any more details about our Shed, what we do and especially what we plan to do in the future, please do not hesitate to call the President or Secretary whose details are below.

BUNINET HAS CLOSED

After many years of providing low-cost public internet access and running regular computer-related courses in the Buninyong Uniting Church Hall, Buninet has finally closed its doors, due to dwindling community demand.

The Buninet Committee formally wound up its affairs last month and held a supper last week to thank everyone who had helped to keep this valuable service going for more than 10 years.

When it opened in 2001-2, the demand for basic computer instruction was enormous: people flocked to use Buninet's computers and its short courses were booked out fast. Many Buninyong and District residents will be grateful to Buninet volunteers over the years for teaching them the mysteries of email, web browsing, digital imaging, word processing and other computer programs. ABC Open also used the facility from time to time for its workshops.

Thank you Buninet and all who have been associated with it: the Buninyong Uniting Church who initiated the outreach project back in 1999; the Buninet Committee, especially its President, Betty Bunting, who was the backbone of the project from start to finish; all the Volunteer co-ordinators, tutors and helpers; and also the students and computer users who were its mainstay during its lifetime. Buninyong's computer literacy is partly due to you.

Neil Cameron

Graduated from the Melbourne University of Agricultural Science in 1951 with, as Neil puts it, “the odd honour”.

He became a livestock farmer in 1952 and for over the last two decades has been exporting cheeses half way round the world from his Meredith Sheep and Goat Dairy.

Neil has been very involved in his community by standing as a councillor on the Bannockburn Shire and sitting on various conservation committees. He has also supported the Woodburn Creek School and the Geelong College as secretary for one and president for the other.

Being a scientist has not prevented Neil from pursuing theological beliefs and as such has been an elder with the Uniting Church since 1956 as he states “struggling to bring the church into the 19th century”.

All in all a very interesting and knowledgeable man who is certainly not hesitant to state what he believes and he does believe that our planet is warming since reading, Greenhouse : planning for climate change / edited by G.I. Pearman

CSIRO. Division of Atmospheric Research [Conference Proceedings : 2 versions : 1988]
Keywords: Greenhouse effect, Atmospheric - Australia - Congresses.; Australia.; Climatic changes - Australia – Congresses

Twenty four years ago, Neil was made aware that the very delicate balance of our planet is being disturbed by human activity.

Neil has presented his logical and indisputable findings in 4 articles ;

- (1) It has rained in Antarctica
- (2) Burning of Fossil Fuels: the Logical Connection with the rise in Atmospheric Carbon Dioxide.
- (3) Carbon Dioxide and Global Temperature
- (4) Earth’s Energy Balance and the concept of “Greenhouse”.

Carbon dioxide, the Earth’ energy balance and the Concept of “Greenhouse”.

Carbon dioxide is the greenhouse gas which controls the global temperature. Without it our Earth would be a frozen ball. It was identified as such 150 years ago.

This idea, that the atmosphere might help keep the Earth warm, is not new. It was first proposed by Joseph Fourier, formerly a lieutenant of Napoleon during the French Egyptian campaign (1798-1801).

Napoleon put him in charge of the Egyptian Museum, and he also became the munitions expert for France's beleaguered expedition. In 1824, Fourier calculated that the Earth is warmer than to expected on the basis of its radiation balance. He likened the atmosphere to the glass of a greenhouse, retaining some terrestrial radiant heat. (Fourier coined the term Greenhouse Effect; but in reality the glass of a greenhouse conserves heat that is lost by both convection and radiation; whereas only radiation is applicable to global heat loss into space.) In coining the term he was inspired by the Swiss aristocrat and alpine explorer Horace Benedict de Saussure (1740 – 1799), who in the 18th century constructed a solar oven comprising a well insulated vase, black inside and covered by several layers of glass: in which, exposed to the sun atop a mountain, he achieved a temperature of 110 degrees Celsius (230Deg. Fahrenheit). Following Fourier, In 1869, native Irishman John Tyndall, using a spectrometer, identified carbon dioxide, water vapour and ozone (O3) as being relatively opaque to certain wavelengths of the infra-red radiation emanating from the Earth, thereby providing a mechanism for Fourier's suggested 'Greenhouse Effect'. This was quantified in 1896 by the Swedish chemist Svante Arrhenius, who suggested that the warming resultant upon rising CO² levels might be advantageous for cold Sweden.

Don an extra jumper and we get warmer—It's a no-brainer!

(Expend less calories than we eat and we get fatter!) So it is with the Earth: If it radiates less heat into space than it receives from the sun, it gets warmer! Prior to the advent of the Industrial Revolution, the incoming and outgoing radiations to and from the earth were in equilibrium. The unprecedented rise in atmospheric carbon dioxide since then has upset that equilibrium.

Thousands attend Melbourne Rally

In Melbourne on Saturday thousands of people gathered on the steps of the State Library to protest the refugee policies of both major political parties.

In an election campaign where both Labor and the Coalition are promoting the most savage anti-refugee policies of any developed country, the protesters were defending the right of desperate people to seek asylum from persecution. As many speakers said, seeking asylum is legal and the manner in which people find their way here should not prejudice their appeal for protection.

On Saturday people had travelled from all over Victoria; from Ballarat, Geelong, Bendigo, Gippsland, the Western District, Sale, Maffra, Daylesford, Castlemaine, and Maryborough. White balloons declared "Geelong welcomes Refugees".

The large crowd, carrying banners and placards and accompanied by a lively jazz band, stopped at Liberal headquarters before final speeches to a slightly smaller crowd at the Old Treasury. The crowd stretched from one side of the road to the other and over a city block long.

Pamela Curr, from the Asylum Seeker Resource Centre said, "There are some terrible things happening in this country. There is no doubt that our politicians have gone mad, absolutely stark mad. These are people seeking protection ... we have to fight for their right to seek security – they're human beings and they've got a right, just like us, to live in peace."

Similar rallies were held simultaneously in Sydney, Perth, Brisbane and Canberra as part of a National Day of Action by refugee advocates, with speakers including refugees who have successfully made new lives in Australia.

A further rally is planned for 21 September, to inform whichever party wins the election, that Australians are not happy that our international obligations are being broken by the government.
